

COFFEE ORIGINS™

CUP GALLERY

Detpak

EXPERIENCE THE DETPAK
COFFEE ORIGINS™ CUP GALLERY,
A COLLECTION OF PAPER HOT
CUPS FEATURING VIVID IMAGERY
INSPIRED BY THE ARCHITECTURE, TEXTILES AND TRADITIONS OF COFFEE-PRODUCING NATIONS.

Influenced by the cultures of Guatemala, Cuba and Mexico, three new designs feature on Detpak's range of paper hot cups, available in Smooth Double Wall, Single Wall, and Ripple-Wrap™. Each carton contains a random mix of cup designs, and the range of designs will be updated seasonally.

Appealing to the ethical consumer, a cup from the Detpak Coffee Origins™ Cup Gallery is not just a great-looking way to serve a hot drink. It will bring your customers closer to the origins of their coffee.

GUATEMALA
COFFEE PRODUCTION
IN GUATEMALA STARTED
IN THE 1850s

The Guatemalan cup design was inspired by the vibrant geometric patterns traditionally used in brocade and embroidering.

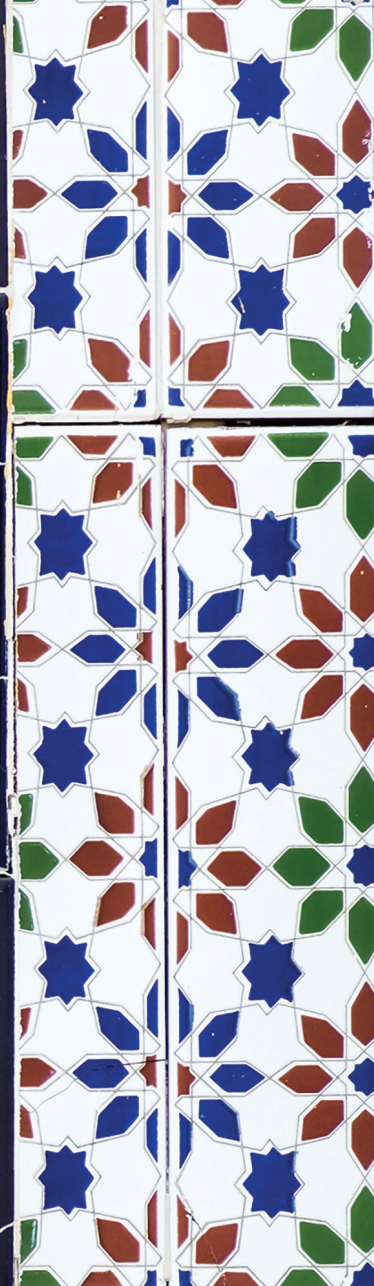

CUBA
COFFEE CAME TO CUBA IN THE MID-1700s

Cuba's cup design references the art nouveau era, which inspired Havana's famous pastel-coloured buildings.

MEXICO
THE WORLD'S FIRST
ORGANIC COFFEE FARM
WAS FOUNDED IN MEXICO

Decorative ceramic tiles are a classic Mexican home accent which helped influenced the rich, bold design for the Mexican cup.

GIVING BACK

At Detpak, we're working with charities around the world to support positive social change using the power of coffee. By purchasing the Detpak Coffee Origins™ Cup Gallery, you're contributing to improving the health, education and food security of families in rural coffee growing communities around the world – to find out more visit detpak.com/coffeeorigins
