Detpak | iam eco™

EXPERIENCE THE DETPAK COFFEE
ORIGINS™ CUP GALLERY, A
COLLECTION OF PAPER HOT
CUPS FEATURING VIVID IMAGERY
INSPIRED BY THE ARCHITECTURE,
TEXTILES AND TRADITIONS OF COFFEE-PRODUCING NATIONS.

Influenced by the cultures of Brazil, Honduras and India, three new designs feature on Detpak's I am eco™ hot cups, which are 100% compostable and biodegradable. They are available in Smooth Double Wall and Single Wall, all with a one-lid-fits-all solution. Each carton contains a random mix of designs, with the designs being updated seasonally.

Appealing to the ethical consumer, a cup from the Detpak Coffee Origins™ Cup Gallery is not just a great-looking way to serve a hot drink. It will bring your customers closer to the origins of their coffee.

BRAZIL

BRAZIL PRODUCES
APPROXIMATELY 30% OF THE WORLD'S COFFEE SUPPLY

Brazil is the world's largest producer of coffee, a position the country has held for about 150 years. Paying tribute to greens and yellows featured in Brazil's flag, the green within this design is representative of Brazil's lush fields and vast forests, while the yellow is symbolic of Brazil's wealth in gold.

HONDURAS

COFFEE IS THE SECOND
LARGEST AGRICULTURAL PRODUCT
EXPORTED OUT OF HONDURAS

Honduras is a prominent coffee producer in Central America, with coffee production playing a significant role in the country's history and economy. The design for this cup features white, a symbol in Honduran culture of purity, peace and prosperity. The national flower of Honduras is a Rhyncholaelia digbyana orchid, presented in the design of this cup.

INDIA

COFFEE WAS SMUGGLED INTO INDIA BY SAINT BABA BUDAN IN AROUND 1600

India is in the top 10 countries in the world for coffee production. Arabica and Robusta are the two main varieties of coffee grown and both are exported in large quantities. The blue in this design pays tribute to the fertile landscape of the southern states of India. Yellow is a lucky colour in Indian culture, and little pops of this colour appear in this design. The pattern itself is representative of Mehndi, a form of body art from Ancient India.
